2019 Youth of the Year Sponsorship

February 5, 2019 | Husky Union Building at University of Washington

Join us to celebrate 10 outstanding Boys & Girls Club teens as they share their stories about who they are and where they are going in front of a panel of distinguished judges and a crowd of more than 300 engaged community members and supporters. Teen honorees are selected by their Clubs for their dedication to service, academic commitment, strength of character, and life goals. We hope your company will consider supporting this special day and helping us present our organization's most prestigious honor, Youth of the Year, to one deserving teen.

Meet Khairi

2018 Youth of the Year

Khairi has overcome a lot in his life. After experiencing homelessness and other hardships throughout his childhood, the Boys & Girls Club has been a steady and motivating part of his life. The Club has inspired him to excel in school and pursue playing basketball and football, and encouraged him to help and mentor young people in his Club and community.

"The Boys & Girls Club caught me at a time in my life when I was finding my path," Khairi says. "They shaped my morals, values, and taught me to never give up."

Now a senior in high school, Khairi has his mind set on attending college at the University of Oregon, and eventually pursuing a master's degree. His hope is to one day return home to give back to his family, Club, and community in a meaningful way.

In October 2018, Khairi was selected as the recipient of a $100k college scholarship from Beyoncé and Jay-Z, one of only 11 Boys & Girls Club kids throughout the country to receive one.
